

Eugenia Prevedourou

Associate Professor (Administrative Law)

Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Faculty of Law

Email: epreved@law.auth.gr, jenny@prevedourou.gr

Eugenia Prevedourou, born in Patras, is Associate Professor of Administrative Law at the Faculty of Law at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She studied Law at National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and pursued her postgraduate studies at the University PARIS II (Université de Droit, d'Économie et de Sciences Sociales de Paris).

She obtained the DEA (Diplôme d'études approfondies) in Internal Public Law (1988) and the DEA in Community Law (1989). After doctoral studies under the supervision of Prof. Yves Gaudemet, also in Paris, she was awarded the title of Docteur en Droit de l'Université Paris II in October 1994. The doctoral thesis, bearing the title "Les recours administratifs obligatoires. Étude comparée des droits allemand et français", was published in 1996 by LGDJ.

From 1992 till 2001, she worked as a civil servant in the Court of justice of the European Union. In 1998, she obtained a nine-month post-doctoral scholarship from EPLO for the Universities of Paris I (6 months) and the Technische Universität Dresden (3 months).

Since October 2001 she has been teaching at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She has also taught for short periods at the University PARIS II and at the University Montpellier I (visiting professor).

Since the 1st of July 2008, she is member of the Appeals Board of the European University Institute of Florence. Her mandate was renewed in July 2014 for six years.

E. Prevedourou is an attorney-at-law, member of the Athens Bar Association, since 1988.

Her native tongue is Greek and she speaks fluently French, English and German. Besides her doctoral thesis, she is the author of two further books in French:

- "Le principe de confiance légitime en droit public français", Préface Ép. Spiliotopoulos, Institut d'histoire constitutionnelle hellénique et de droit constitutionnel, Études 8, éd. Droit & Économie - P. N. Sakkoulas, Athènes 1998 (130 pages)
- "L'évolution de l'autonomie procédurale des États membres de l'Union européenne. Recherches sur le pouvoir du juge administratif d'apprécier d'office la compatibilité du droit national avec le droit communautaire », Préface Gérard Timsit, European Public Law Series/Bibliothèque de Droit Public, 1999, vol. XII, (289 pages).

She has also published three monographs in Greek:

- 1) The complexe administrative procedure: national law and community perspective, Sakkoulas, 2005 (486 p.)
- 2) No need to adjudicate in actions for annulment, Sakkoulas, 2012 (372 p.)
- 3) The influence of the european law on the process in the Council of State, NomikiBibliothiki, 2012 (XX +236 p.)

She has made a significant number of publications in the fields of Administrative Law and European Community Law, as well as lectures in seminars and congresses, both national and european.