

Mrs Anna Gizari Xanthopoulou is a graduate of Law School (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece), a holder of D.S.U. (Advanced University Diploma) and D.E.A. (Master of Advanced Studies) postgraduate degrees in the field of the European Communities Law by the University of Paris II Pantheon-Assas and has been appointed as a professor at the Law School of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She is an associate professor in the Department of International Studies of the Law School of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She teaches European Union Law and European environmental law at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. She is a member of the Hellenic University Association for European Studies and the Hellenic Association For European Law. In the years 2004-2008, she was in charge of a Jean Monnet educational program on environmental governance in the European Union. She has written three monographs and several articles.

Monographs

- 1) The control of violations by member states exercised by the Court of Justice of the European Communities in accordance with the E.E.C. Treaty, Sakkoulas Publications 1992.
- 2) The new mechanisms of environmental policy in the European Union, Sakkoulas Publications 2003.
- 3) The contribution of individuals to the implementation of the environmental law of the European Union, Sakkoulas Publications 2013.

