

Iosif Ktenidis

Associate Professor

Faculty of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Studies

- 1994: PhD, Faculty of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. Topic: Judicial Review of Unfair Trade Measures in the Community Legal Order. (grade: “excellent”)
- 1990: LL.M., Harvard Law School
- 1989: LL.B., Faculty of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (grade: “excellent”).

Academic activity

- Associate Professor at the Department of International Studies, Faculty of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.

Main Courses taught:

Undergraduate Program: EU Law, Human Rights Protection in the EU Legal Order, EU International Relations Law.

Graduate Program: Application of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights, Law of the Economic and Monetary Union

Erasmus (in English): EU Law, EU International Relations Law

- Director of the Department of International Studies (2017-2019).
- Director of the Graduate Program “European Business and Economic Law” (2021).
- Research Assistant, Harvard Law School (1989-90).

Professional activity

- Attorney at the Thessaloniki Bar

- Director of the Legal Department of Piraeus Bank (2000-2008), member of the Legal Council (2009-2017), Chairman of the Legal Council of Piraeus Bank (2017-2019)

Monographs

- 1996: Judicial Review of Unfair Trade Measures in the Community Legal Order, Sakkoulas Pub. (301 p.)
- 2008: EU Law and International Sanctions, Sakkoulas Pub. (308 p.)
- 2017: The EU Legislative System, Sakkoulas Pub. (275 p.)

Most recent publications

- “The Greek Courts and the Law of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights” (in Greek), Armenopoulos Sept. 2020, p. 1441-1469
- Commentary of Arts. 8 TEU, 205, 289 – 293, 296 - 299 TFEU in in V. Skouris (Ed.), The Treaty of Lisbon, Commentary of the Treaty on the European Union, the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights, Sakkoulas Pub. (in Greek), 2020.
- “Monetary Union, Internal Market, Economic Policy Coordination and the Banking Union: Legal Tensions in Times of Economic Crisis”, in I. Papadopoulos (Ed.) European Economic Governance after the Crisis, Cambridge Scholars Publishing, Forthcoming 2021.