

Organised by

Under the aegis of

Workshop

European Constitutionalism in times of multiple crises

Hybrid form

Online

<https://authgr.zoom.us/j/93712184159>, Meeting ID: 937 1218 4159

and in Hall 319, Law School

Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Greece

Session 1: 11.00 – 12.30 (Greek time, 10-11.30 CET) Online only

<https://authgr.zoom.us/j/93712184159>, Meeting ID: 937 1218 4159

Rule of law and national particularities

Chair: Lina Papadopoulou, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law, Jean Monnet Chair, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece

The Problem with the Rule of Law in Europe

Andrea Pin, Associate Professor of Comparative Public Law, University of Padova Law School

Populist Mimetism in Action: the case of National Identity under 4.2 TEU

Giuseppe Martinico, Full Professor of Comparative Public Law, Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna, Pisa, Italy

Session 2: 17.00 – 18.00 (Greek time), Law School, Hall 319

Health crisis and EU policies

Chair: Martin Belov, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law, Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski", Bulgaria

The EU Integration Process and the COVID-19 Pandemic: New Approaches to Existing Theories?

Alexandros Kyriakidis, Postdoctoral Researcher and Head of Operations and Research, Center for Research on Democracy and Law, University of Macedonia

The effects of Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, US Supreme Court in abortion and women's rights in USA and Europe

Christina M. Akrivopoulou, Adjunct Lecturer HOU

Session 3: (Hall 319): 18.30 – 20.00

EU values and the quest for a common EU political identity

Chair and commentary: Lina Papadopoulou

EU Values and the Rule of law crisis

Despoina Anagnostopoulou, Associate Professor, University of Macedonia, Greece

Rule of Law and Space of Flows

Martin Belov, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law, Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski", Bulgaria

A common European foreign policy a dream come true or fantasies of an old aristocrat?

Ioannis Papageorgiou, Associate Professor of EU studies, Faculty of Political Sciences, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece

Discussion

End of workshop